Memories '94

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

The Road - We are walking, running, sprinting down the road. Leaping, jumping, flying. Rushing, strolling, crawling. It is a great expanse heading infinitely into the horizon. Every so often it appears as if the end is finally in sight, but the road suddenly darts to the left or right. Occasionally our paths run parallel, cross each other and even unite. Sometimes we are tired, but the road itself seems to pull us farther and farther along. Together as a class we were walking down this road of life, looking back only for inspiration to continue our journey. -Warren D. Hoffman

Principal's Message

Dr. John Wingerter

To the Class of 1994:

This yearbook, in a very real sense, is a record of memories - your memories - the many memories you hold both individually and in common as members of the Class of 1994. There will be times as you "walk down the road of life" that you will reflect on your years at Marple Newtown Senior High School. It is my sincere hope that those reflections are pleasant ones; ones which you will cherish throughout your continued travels.

You have received an education that will serve you well through life. May you experience much happiness, success, and peace throughout your journey.

John F. Wingerter

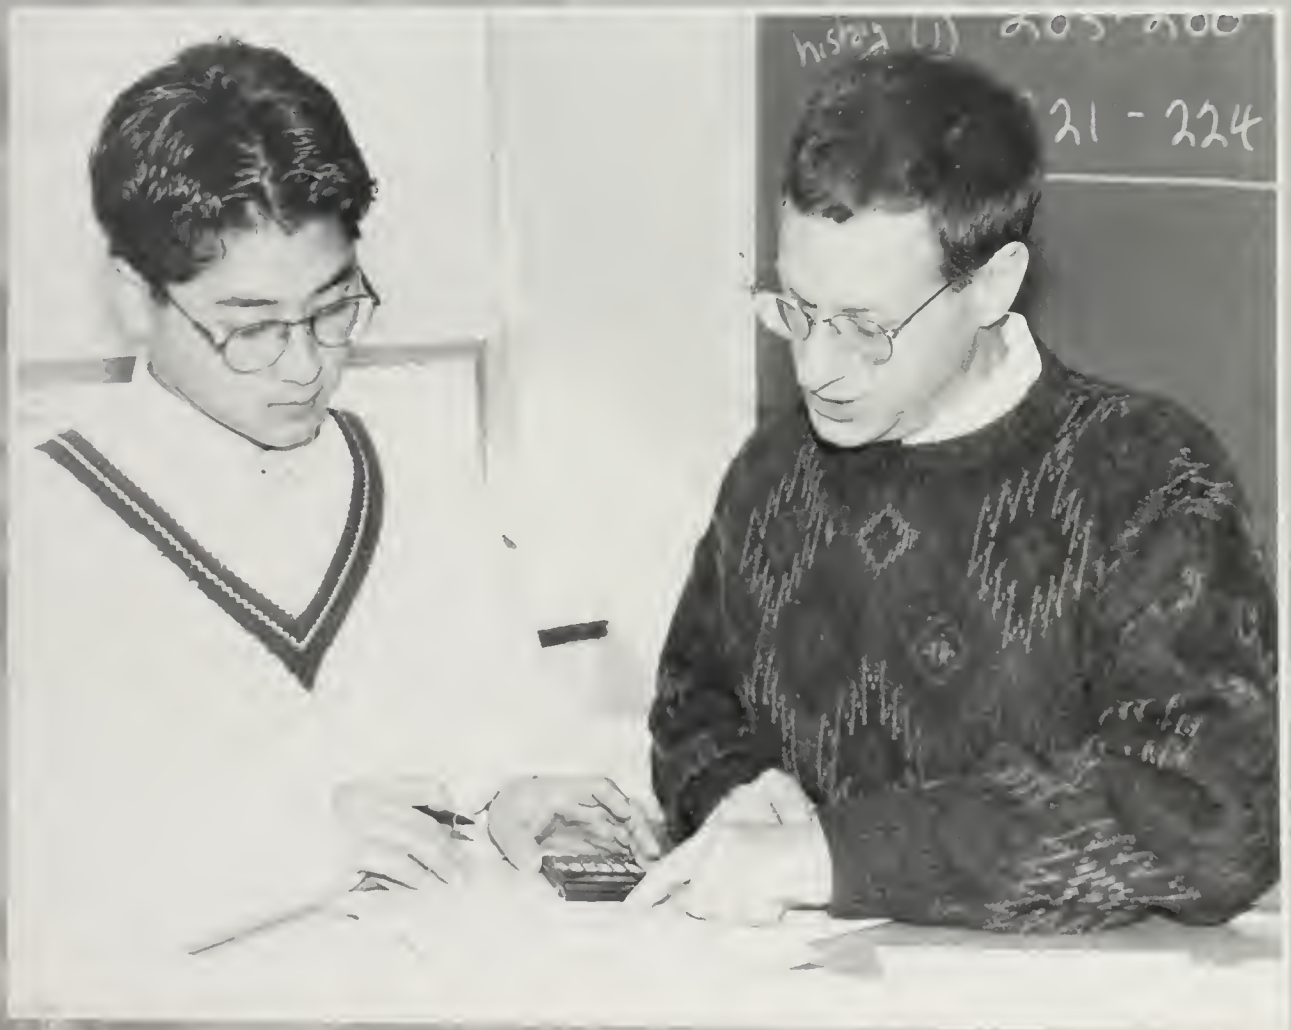
The Road To Excellence

I Have Learned Silence From The Talkative, Toleration From The Intolerant, And Kindness From The Unkind; Yet Strange, I Am Ungrateful To Those Teachers.

-Kahlil Gibran



English

Read,

Question,
Compose,
Take Risks,
Grow Intellectually.
-Mrs. Giorgio

Some thoughts on the teaching of English at MN:

Mrs. McHale: "Doubt thou the stars are fire;
Doubt that the sun doth move;
Doubt truth to be a liar;
But never doubt I' teach!" -Shakespeare's Hamlet

Mrs. Bonder: Questions - always the search for more questions - a lifetime and more . . .

Mrs. Fowler: Be enterprising - showing energy and initiative to undertake the adventurous.

Ms. Cunningham: "The one real object of education is to leave a person in the condition of continually asking questions." - Bishop Mandell Creighton

Ms. Yannaconc: "Great spirits have always encountered violent opposition from mediocre minds." -Einstein

Mr. McHugh: "There is no lack of void." -Samuel Beckett

Mr. Williams: Be a reader. Think deeply. Love learning. Be humble enough to try new things. You only fail by not trying. Play chess.

Mr. Kenig: Who? What? When? Where? Why?

Ms. DeLuca: Teaching English today encompasses, motivating, encouraging and caring.

Mrs. Tsigas: "If you have built castles in the air, . . . now put the foundations under them." -Henry David Thoreau

As you "walk down the road of life," MN Soeial Studies teaehers hope we have helped you find some of the "signposts" along the way. We leave for your Memories some of our favorite quotes whieh may give you an opportunity to refleet on the direetions you take and deeisions you make.

Mrs. Franeiseo: "Edueation is the mother of all professions," said George Highet in the Art of Teaehing. So, prepare well for your life's ehosen eareer while you are here with us at MNHS.

Ms. Graham: "Man is but a reed, the most feeble thing in nature; but he is a thinking reed. Let us endeavor, then to think well." Blaise Paseal

Mr. Hadavas: "Freedom above all!" Beethoven

Dr. Itzko: "Our kids spend 900 hours a year in school . . . and from 1200 to 1800 hours a yeai in front of the television set. From which are they likely to learn more?" Benjamin R. Baker

Mr. Keyser: "We learn from history that we do not learn from history," refleeted George Hegel in his study on the eourse of history.

Ms. Lueas: "History is written by the winners."

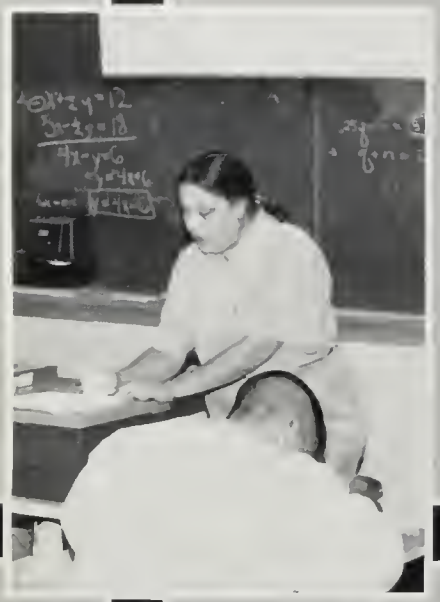
Mr. Reuss: "Cogito, ergo sum." (I think, therefore, I am) Deseartes

Mr. Seott: "The only sure bulwark of eontinuing liberty is a government strong enough to proteet the interests of the people, and a people strong enough and well enough informed to maintain its sovereign eontrol over its government." Franklin D. Roosevelt

Mr. Wimer: "Happiness makes up in height for what it laeks in length." Robert Frost

"If history teaches us anything it is that man, in his quest for knowledge and progress, is deter-[illegible]." Go and do likewise. -Dr. Erickson

Math



"Learning this new technology keeps me sharp and enthusaic about teaching." -Mr. Knorr

The Mathematics Department is very proud to offer to its students a program of study of such scope to include courses suitable to each student and of such depth as to challenge the ablest student. Among the department's goals is to make mathematics a blending of computational skills, conceptual ideas, and applications to the real world. In keeping with the curriculum and and evaluation goals described by the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, the mathematics faculty believe thinking skills, decision making, and problem solving are the essence of mathematics and all students should have opportunities to experience and develop these skills.

Significant changes have taken place to enhance the teaching and learning of mathematics. Perhaps the most significant change has been the implementation of the scientific graphics calculator. As Mr. Knorr said, "Learning this new technology keeps me sharp and enthusiastic about teaching."

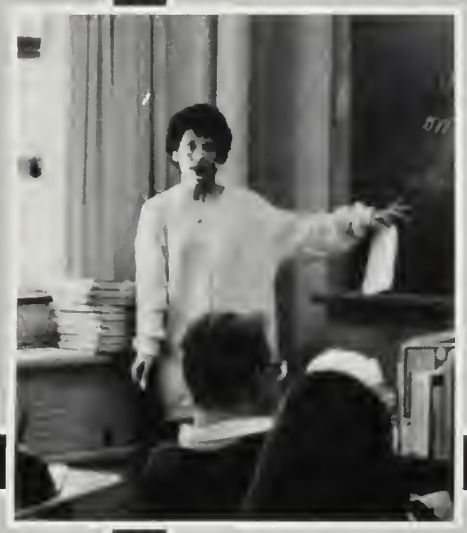
"Seek always to do some good, somewhere. Every man has to seek in his own way to realize his true worth. You must give some time to your fellow man. Even if it's a little thing, do something for those who need help, something for which you get no pay but the privilege of doing ... For remember, you don't live in a world all your own. Your brothers are here too. - Albert Schweitzer"

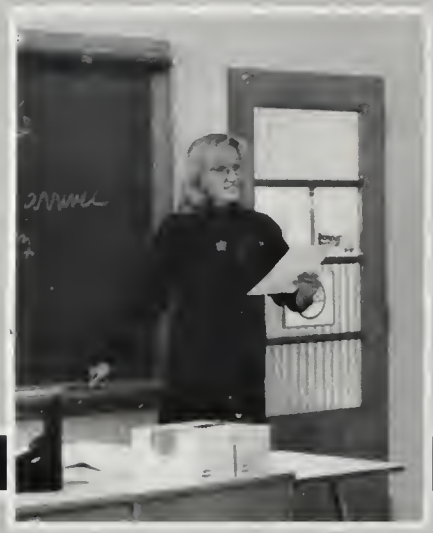
An important mission of science education in the secondary school has traditionally been to help prepare students to become qualified scientists, health professionals, engineers, and science educators in order to allow our nation to compete successfully worldwide in science and technology. However, in recent years this very important mission has been expanded to also include the philosophy that all citizens of our nation must be scientifically literate so that they can understand and be able to deal rationally with the issues and opportunities of the scientific and technological world in which they live.

To achieve this mission, the MN Science Department provides a sequential program of study that includes all of the traditional major subject areas, each offered at various student ability levels. All courses present the concepts, processes, and theories of science while stressing learning through scientific inquiry. Needless to say, laboratory work is an integral part of each course. In addition, the interaction of science and technology with society is considered at all levels, as well as the exploration of career opportunities in science.

Foreign Language

"No hay limites, salvo el cielo."
-Miguel de Cervantes





Dear Graduates:

As you leave the familiar halls of M.N. and start your walk "down the road of life," your foreign language teachers and I trust that the French, German and Spanish skills that you have developed here will provide many enriched opportunities for profit and pleasure. In the smaller, interdependent world in which you will live and work, the ability to communicate with those with whom you share the globe will become more and more a survival skill. Equipped with your foreign language skills, you will encounter expanded career opportunites, will be able to make new friends at home and abroad, will have a better understanding of different cultures, and will have a greater appreciation of the English language and our American way of life. And of course, in your future travels, we hope you will have a wonderful time ordering a mousse au chocolat in a parisian cafe, asking dirctions to a Madrid restaurant that serves paello, or buying a ticket for a boat trip down the Rhine.

We congratulate you on your accoplishments, extend best wishes for your future endeavors, and trust that your foreign language proficiency will provide you with a passport to expanded opportunities.

The Marple Newtown Girls' Soccer Team finished their season with a disappointing 2-14 record. However, there was tremendous overall improvement throughout the season. Everyone gave it their all in every game and in the eyes of the captains, this was a successful season. Good luck, don't forget your pennies, and follow the rules.

Breakin' the law-Monica; Jen S.-you're caught; Sacha Contusion? Gornish-left foot; Katie-keeper extraordinaire; Cella—still standing? Meg V. & Selena-What's so funny? Alisha-I know; June- headball; Jill-UNC stinks; Siri-we noticed, thanx; Litsa-silent but deadly; What did you say Kathy? Tiphaine-What happened to your arm? Stacie-the example, and Pam-What's out of line?

Guy's Soccer

Our record Wins: some Losses: a lot more. Guys, guess what Mike's girlfriend can do. Hey Grober where is your eagle and how bald is it? Ahh. Hey Guys! Moo, Moo, Mookul!! Only shorts without Bacon. Where is Jude? Football! Phu, can your mom cook? Bildo, get off the sauce. Run Diabetes Run! Paul wear your orange socks. Reh, where are your shinguards? Steph, nice rump. Burling, why didn't you show up for Glen Mills? Dan, Bill, and Mike, thanks for a fun year. Good luck!

Season Reeap: This was the first time in three years that the MN Girl's Varsity Volleyball team went to districts. The team worked especially hard this year and it paid off when we beat Penncrest and Kennet Square. The team's overall reeord in the eentral league was 11-7. Congratulations to the JV team for being undefeated in the league. The seniors, Jen Strobel and Jenn Puleo (eaptains), Karen Agnew, Erin McDuffie, Katharine Silverman, and June Kim wish the best of luek to next year's team! Thanks to the coaehes and all the fans who supported us throughout the season!

Go Go Gettem Gettem Ahh Do It! Where's the crank? the key? And who didn't lock the cages? Balls in the bucket then 6 laps, 40 situps, 40 pushups=ow! ow! ow! A new line up- are you crazy? Wait, what was it like? Districts, Districts!! Remember ladies- a team that eats together wins together; Hey check me out, I'm hot!! Nothing goes right if your underwear is too tight!! To the seniors: Strobel, Puleo, Agnew, "Fluffy", July, and Katherine, it's always a pleasure. And for those varsity members: "Herb", Cin, and Sher, thanks for your help to go so far. To next year's team- beat those stinking Ford, Ridley, and Penncrest!

The 93'-94' Girls Tennis team ended up 7-2 only losing to Radnor and Lower Merion, finishing second in the Central League. The season was extended for Kate Ovelman and Ellen Smith who continued into the states doubles playoffs. We had a great season and a great bunch of girls. We were happy to have such a great season for Mrs. Bortle and Mrs. Wadsworth who will be leaving us after 12 years of coaching. We wish them the best. Things to remember: Orange bloomers; Picking up men at away matches; Mr. Biggs; Hyperextending is bad; Ellen loves R.J.; Riddley tennis?!; Willard Scott; Bend your knees and come to the net.

Cross Country

Steve Magliano, Mr. Claney, Warren Hoffman, Pat Brennan, Tom Harner.

This year the cross-country team grew ever so slightly in numbers with the addition of Kyle Rosenbloom, Steve Magliano, Sean Munley, Pat Brennan and Albert Lee. Returning members this year were Warren Hoffman, Tom Harner and John Choe. Kyle, Steve and Tom were this year's leading runners and were able to individually beat some opponents. As a team, though, Marple has not been able to progress from last place in Central League for the last few years. Leading the team this year was Coach Mike Clancy who took over for Mr. Hadavas. Mr. Clancy, a former MN cross-country runner himself, worked this year's team hard in order that each person could achieve their best time.

Lets see if we can"t, ah, streeh?
Steve . . . why praetiee, you win anyway.
Go Ridley!!
Where are the girls (girl)?
Go Ridley!!
Kyle- our first sub-twenty runner (is this eourse shorter)
Go Ridley!!
Harner- "okay, lets go home now."
Sean- But I had 4 tests!
Albert- How's help elass?
John- I'll be there tomorrow.
Warren- At least you beat 2 people (unfortunately they were Marple runners.)
Pat- Well there's always iee hockey. Too big for the sport.
Slow and steady doesn't win the raee, you just eome in last.

Spirit Week

Spirit Week '93

The games began on Monday, November 22 with each class performing in skits. The skits dealt with the year of each classes birth. The class of '95 came in first after award winning reenactments of Grease, Elvis' death, and the Carter Oil Crisis. Tuesday was kicked off by a 4th period volleyball game between the junior intermural team "Justins Kids" and the senior team "Fishes House". The winners, "Justins Kids", then played the girls volleyball team and the teachers. That night the powder puff football game was dominated by the sophomores and juniors when they took a 14-2 victory over the seniors and freshmen. Everyone partied afterwards at the Student Council sponsored Bon-Fire. Finally on Wednesday November 24 all the classes got psyched for the Thursday football game at a pep rally. Here the winners of Spirit Week, the juniors, were announced. The seniors came in 2nd place, the sophomores 3rd, and the freshmen in last place.

Organizations

Art Club

Let's go, child. Let's go to the center of the Earth, along the tightrope we call reality. You know you're scared. Scared to lose your balance, your sanity. Would it be fatal to lose your grip? Let's see. Ride with us. The Art Club. We are a horse, running up an escalator going down. Only there's no bottom. It is a long trip between the hand and the mind, and weary travelers are easily blurred. Let the Art Club guide you. If you hold on tight with both hands, we'll take you there and back. Loosen your grip, and you'll lose your way. If that should happen, remember the laws . . . there is something within such laws that takes the breath away. In a moment of clarity, one can discover their prescence. We are that moment. That spark of inspiration. That shot in the dark which lights the way and yet does not kill. Oh, but we'll maim, alright. Join us. Join the Art Club. Advisor: Mrs. Martin

Chess Club

The Chess Team practices hard constantly. They play other schools when possible. Our long-time rivalry with Haverford High has produced many tense struggles. In the past years Marple Newtown has won matches against the Haverford School, Valley Forge Military Academy, and many other high schools. Chess sharpens the mind and encourages mental concentration. Wholesome competition fosters self-reliance and good sportsmanship. This year's Captains include School Champion Suhail Kanchwla, Tim Slothower, and Kevin Crawford. Leading players include David Hoffman, Jessê Goslee, Jude Costello, Bob Savino, R.J. Ippoldo, Karen Agnew and Meg Gharadagian. Advisor: Mr. Williams

Organizations

Chi Sigma Chi

We are a service organization open to senior and junior girls. We perform school and community services and do non-profit projects, especially around the holiday season for the students.

Christian Fellowship

Christian Fellowship is a non-denominational club designed to provide a place for Christians in Marple Newtown to come together. Our primary interest is to learn more about God and Christian principles as described in the Bible.

President: Dan Bowman
Vice President: Sarah MacPhail
Treasurer: Karl Russo
Secretaries: Kim Segermark and Katherine Silverman
Advisor: Dr. Wingerter

Organizations

Debate Team

The Debate team competes every week during the winter at various central league schools. Under the leadership of advisor Heir Boettjer and team captains Jordan Weinstein, Seth Freilich and David Hoffman, the debate team has enjoyed tremendous success over the past few seasons. Last year, representatives from the team took first place at District Debates and placed in the semifinals at State Debates. The whole team would like to thank Heir Boettjer for his wisdom and guidance, without whom we would never be the master-debaters that we are.

Emergency

Emergency club responds to emergency situations in the high school until EMS arrives. The club meets monthly to keep up on their skills of CPR, stoppage of bleeding and prevention falls and seizures. Usually you can tell the Emergency Team from other students by the beepers they wear. Advisor: Nurse Baker

Tiger

The 93-94 Tiger Band has had an extremely successful year. On the football field the marching band took the highest possible award in all of their four competitions. The concert band has also done quite well. From Concert in the Park, to the annual "Music Gala" the band has entertained crowds of all ages. The year will climax with the spring trip to Disney World and a Parade down Main Street which is sure to be fantastic. Thanks goes out to Drum Major Jim Allsman, Assistant Drum Majors Dave Anspach and Scott Ellis, President Jordan Weinstein, all of the band officers and the rest of the band, and of course to Mr. Jehanian for a truely superior year.

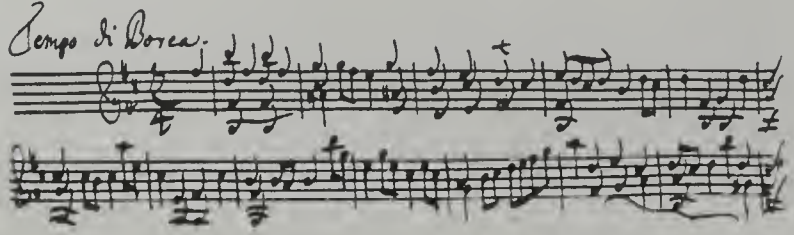
1994 District Choir Members

The Choir began the year with more new members causing choir enrollment to expand to over 60 people. The choir tried to pick music this year that everyone would like. Our repetoire included: "Speak to One Another", "Rock-a-my-Soul", Schubert's Mass in G Minor, "Heaven" and a Medley from Guys and Dolls. The choir meets three days a week and performs not only for the school but also for outside groups. This year, the choir was also able to send four students to District Choir. They were Warren Hoffman, Ryan Harlin, Josh Martin and Jeannie Richards. Jesse Harlin was an alternate.



Orchestra

Director - Larry McGriff
President - Jennifer Puleo
Vice President - Jennifer Salotto
Secretary - Jennifer Paretchan
Treasurer - Gail Epstein

The Marple Newtown Orchestra is composed of a relatively small group of strings and woodwinds. It rehearses diligently every Monday and Friday morning and performs various concerts throughout the school year. Selected participation in District Orchestra by Sarah Kaplan, Rebecca Kim, and Elizbeth Kim was one of this year's important highlights. Under the excellent direction of Mr. Larry McGriff, the program has improved tremendously and will be able to continue its well deserved success.

Ice Storm

The month of January brought an unprecedented amount of ice, wind and snow to the Northeastern United States. Inches of ice incased everything in sight. A few days later, several inches of snow lay a blanket over the rock-solid ice that refused to melt. With record highs of six degrees, one could only expect the melting process to take a very long time. The strange January weather came as a mixed blessing to the students of Marple Newtown Senior High.

Of twenty scheduled school days in the month of January, students attended only nine days of school, much to the chagrin of teachers and to the joy of students. For those unfortunate souls whose buses never made it to the high school, there were even fewer days. Many of these nine days began two hours late. Tests were postponed, lessons were interrupted and textbooks gathered dust. Students were all too happy to get the opportunity to sleep in and be lazy. The bells rang idly, echoing the cold empty halls.

However, at home, things were downright grim. Many houses were without heat, electricity or hot water. A state emergency was declared. In desperation, families huddled around fireplaces, kerosene heaters, wood stoves or anything else that gave off heat. Bundled up in layers of clothing and blankets, people went to sleep dreaming of places with palm trees, hot showers and plenty of road salt. For those lucky enough to have electricity, quality daytime television was available for viewing enjoyment. Cabin fever began to set in after a few too many hours with the folks and after watching too many reruns of "I Love Lucy".

January 1994

The frigid weather kept many from leaving the protection of their homes, but some did venture out. They found icy roads that caused many a fender bender and miles and miles of traffic on major roads and highways. Stores and even malls were closed as roads became impassable and electricity became scarce. Rock salt was a highly valued commodity. You could tell times were desperate when you heard news reports of stolen rock salt from PennDOT's own depositories.

As the mercury inched up the thermometer, the ice began to melt. A torrential rain speeded up the process so fast that basements flooded and roads were beginning to look like creeks and rivers. However, the worst was over for now. School was back in session, and some students were actually glad to be back. For those who missed sleeping in, they were gladdened by the fact that midterms would be cancelled this year. Students also learned that the missed days would have to be made up over Spring Recess and that the school year would have to be extended. The winter storm of '94 was definitely a mixed blessing.

Winter Semi-Formal

This Year, The Senior Class Continued The Tradition Of Having A Junior/Senior Winter Semi-Formal. Lisa Herbster And Tara Apalucci Coordinated This Event Which Accomodated Over 200 People. Miraculously, There Was A Break In The Blustery Winter Weather Which Made It Possible For Many To Attend.

It Was Exciting To See Everyone So Dressed Up. The Gym Looked Like An Entirely Different Place And The Health Rooms Were Turned Into A Cozy Cafe. By 11:30 PM The Night Had Flown By. With Sore Legs And In An Excited Frame Of Mind, Everyone Left With The Memories Of The Fun They Had That Night, Hoping That The Tradition Of The Semi-Formal Would Be Carried On For Years To Come.

Too often we have an experience and immediately after it's over, we let it go. Then it is lost to us forever. Experiences, as well as memories, can be captured and kept only when we take the time to think about them. Many of us live only for today. We fail to realize that it is our memories that give life its meaning and structure. We must keep them alive.

Elementary School

And

Junior High

Remember when life was so simple and worrying about what game you were going to play at recess was your biggest problem? We all look back at those years in elementary and junior high school and laugh at our petty fights and the trendy fads we experimented with. But those times were the best of our lives as we learned about ourselves and established friendships with our schoolmates. We have shared good times and bad times, but most importantly, we have made memories together that will last a lifetime. As we graduate from Marple Newtown this year, each one of us will explore a new and different path. We can only hope that our paths cross once again in the future, keeping our memories and friendships strong forever.

The Way We Were . . .

Gazing back
Over the travelled path
Towards the horizon
In the distance behind us.
Involuntary smiles
As we ponder
Our innocence in retrospect.
The start of the road
Had her mountains and valleys.
Yet now, as always,
Hindsight smooths
The memories.

Memories of the Junior Prom

The initial thrill of being asked. Then the endless trips to stores looking for a dress. What was I going to do with my hair, my nails, my jewelry, my makeup? That day, no one was able to concentrate. The early dismissal was burning a hole in my pocket. Finally 11:20 arrived! I went home, grabbed a bite to eat and then ran off to the florists and dress place. The alterations were finished. Back at home, the primping began. The hair was set, nails were polished and the dress was ready.

Last minute touch up . . . the doorbell rang and my heart leaped into my throat. After weeks of preparation and nights of restless sleep, I was off to the biggest event of my Junior Year.

Later, as my date and I stood in line for our pictures, I glanced into the banquet room. It was so beautiful! Everyone looking smashing in their tuxedos and dresses. I felt so mature. As we danced the night away on the dance floor, I knew that I would never forget my junior prom.

Class of...94

Officers

It has been a pleasure serving you as class treasurer my senior year. Our class has had some tough times through our four years, but in our senior year I believe we have pulled together and made our class something we can all be proud of. In my opinion this class has achieved more than any class that has ever gone through this school. Our class was one of a kind. There is no other class like us and there never will be. This is what makes our class unique, and if I ever had a chance to go in any other class I would have to decline, because the class of 94 is truly the best.

-Tom Harner
Class Treasurer

We've travelled down this long, windy road of life and somewhere along the way we found each other. High School was just one extended stop for us. It was at Marple Newtown that we learned what it was like to be a class. Over the last four years we grew closer together and it was very exciting to be a part of it. As individuals we were strong but we learned that as a group we could be invincible. Our spirit could not be measured by any judges and our endurance would not be marred by frustration. We became a class with undying pride. The friendships that we've made here at MN will last forever just as the memories of high school will live in our hearts forever. I thank you for choosing me as your class president for three years. This has been a wonderful experience that I will never forget. I wish each and every one of you, my classmates and friends, the best possible life full of success and happiness. As you continue on that windy road look upon these past four years with confidence and know that you can do whatever you desire. Good luck!

-Stacie Ziegenfuss
Class President

The past two years as Vice-President of the class of 94 has been a great experience. My main goal for this year was to have fun. It was no problem to accomplish with this class. I hope everyone else has had as much fun as I did. Thanks to the entire class (especially my friends) for helping and supporting me through the years as Vice-President. Mary, Tom and Stacie - good job! We made it. Also thanks to Mrs. Lanshe and Mrs. Unruh. I hope I represented you well.

-Kristy Baldwin
Class Vice-President

To sit down and sum up four years of high school into one paragraph is hard to do. I realize that all good things do come to an end, and so I guess high school is one of them. Although graduation is something that everyone looks forward to, I have mixed feelings about it. Of course we are now free to go and pursue what life has in store for us. But at the same time we are leaving behind all of the friends we have made over the years, Friday night football games, and of course Mr. Kenig's megaphone. I think that the class of 1994 has the desire as well as the ability to succeed. Although the last four years have passed by quickly, the memories will last forever. Goodbye and good luck, and remember - if you want your dreams to come true, don't sleep in.

The Road Home

I'm gonna' miss your smiling face.
I'm gonna' miss your warm embrace, my friend.
But I know, in my heart I know,
You'll always be there.
I know, deep inside I know,
You'll always be there.

Though we now find miles between,
Do you know how much you mean to me?
And if you should need my help
I'll always be there.
All you need to do is say you love me too,
And I will be there for you.
No matter where it is that I may be,
I'm know I'm gonna' see
Plenty of memories come my way.
Still if you should need my help,
I'll always be there for you.

I know, time and time again,
I'll always be there for you.
All you need to do is
Tell me that you love me too,
And I will be there . . .

for you.

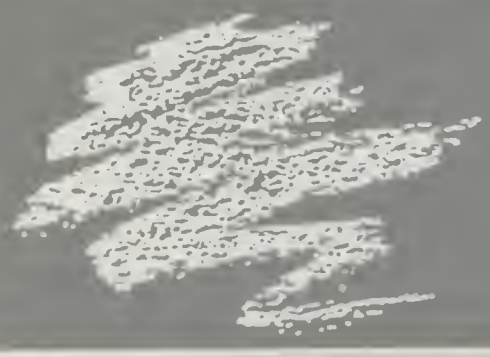
Teachers

on the Line

The 1993-1994 school year at Marple Newtown was an odd one in many ways. One of the things that set this year apart was the labor dispute between the teachers and the school board. The teachers' contract expired in June 1993, so they returned to work in September without a contract. The teachers wanted a pay raise of 20% over three years, while the school board wanted to give only marginal salary increases. Under a new Pennsylvania law entitled Act 88, a state fact-finder was assigned to help settle the dispute, with his findings to be released in November.

While the fact-finder worked on Marple Newtown's case, the teachers decided to begin "working to contract." This meant that they would only arrive twenty minutes before the start of school and remain in school for twenty minutes afterward. This was hard on the students, as help classes were only twenty minutes and many school clubs were cancelled until the situation was resolved.

By late November, the fact-finder concluded that the teachers deserved a 10.5% raise in a new three-year contract. The teachers accepted this report, but the school board rejected it. As the two sides went back to the bargaining table, the teachers began "working to rule," which meant that they would not take work home anymore. All tests and assignments would have to be graded in school. In addition, the teachers set a strike deadline of January 25, 1994. If a contract decision had not been reached by then, there would be a teacher strike.



Strike

As January 25 arrived, there was still no contract. The teachers authorized a strike, and they hit the picket lines. Every Philadelphia TV station sent a news crew to the high school. The strike meant that underclassmen stayed home while seniors witnessed the event firsthand as they attended "senior school." Seniors went to school in the morning to be taught by department heads and administrators in the five major subjects. The strike and senior school was to last three days. However, two of the days were cancelled due to a snow storm.

As this was being written, the contract situation was still not settled; merely moved to non-binding arbitration. The teachers continue to only stay twenty minutes before and after school, with the threat of a second strike looming on the horizon.

Last Words '94

Months of planning are finally over and I hope I have produced the best book possible. I would like to thank everyone who got ads, typed, took pictures and wrote articles for us. I would also like to thank Mr. Williams and Dr. Wingerter for their help and support. We appreciate the typewriter. To Brent- What can I say? All the money is accounted for. To June- Thank you for fitting yearbook into your busy schedule. (All that homework gets me down too). To Erin- Our Sports Editor plus . . . and yes, I've calmed down (I think?) To Betsy- Only you could like typing; thanks for Penny and all the other books. To Johanna, Rachel, Becky and Jen-Good luck next year, You'll need it. Special thanks to Patty our wonder typist and Janice Bigelow. (We love you Janice!) And last but definitely not least, to Kim- Thanks for being there through all my fits, spastic attacks and yearbook crises. I shall never forget our hours on the phone talking about our numerous production problems. Just remember, "Beautiful Night-Beautiful Convertibles-Beautiful Girls! I think that's what yearbook means when you come right down to it. Thanks to all the people who purchased this book; Kim and I will be taking our cruise to the Bahamas now.

Warren D. Hoffman

Destined to work together since nursery school.

Well, it looks like this book has finally come to the end of its road. Thanks to everyone who helped along the way. Johanna, Rachel and Jenn- You guys were a great help. Good luck next year- It'll be over before you know it. Brent- Thanks for "taking care of business." Betsy- Ms. Wonder Typist- I could always count on you (and that is not common knowledge!) June- I couldn't have done it without you (and our occasional V.S. sprees.) Erin- How would I have managed without our double-period talks (despite our favorite visitor)? Thanks for sports and so much more. Warren- It's done! We survived 5:30 P.M. deadline rushes, month-late tintypes, arctic temperatures and general insanity. Time for that cruise, don't you think? Mr. Williams- Thanks so much for all your advice, from astrology to yearbook. So what is the meaning of consciousness, anyway? To the class of 1994- Congratulations. I wish only the best for each of our 242 journeys.
